

Egg-less version of the classic mayo, with aioli and tartare sauce variations.
Based on the recipe from Miyoko's "The Homemade Vegan Pantry" cookbook.

INGREDIENTS

yields 12 oz mayo

½ cup soy milk
(don't substitute with another milk)
1 Tbsp mustard
1½ tsp apple cider vinegar
½ tsp salt
1 cup neutral oil
(I use safflower)

DIRECTIONS

All ingredients should be at room temperature beforehand. This is key, otherwise the emulsion won't happen.
Put all the ingredients in a large mason jar (24 oz or bigger).
Mix at high speed with immersion blender until emulsified (~10 seconds).
Store in the fridge for up to one month.

Aioli variation: Mix ¼ cup mayo with 2 crushed garlic cloves and 1 tsp lemon juice.

Tartare sauce variation: Mix ¼ cup mayo with 1 tsp lemon juice, 1 Tbsp fresh dill or parsley, 1 tsp capers, and 1 Tbsp cornichon (tiny French gherkin cucumbers, or use regular dill pickles), all finely chopped.
